The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 15, to Saturday October 19, 1771.

Dublin Caſtle, October 8.

THIS Day the Parliament having met, according to the Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the Houſe of Peers; and being ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, the Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod was ſent with a Meſſage from his Excellency to the Houſe of Commons, ſignifying his Pleaſure that they ſhould immediately attend his Excellency in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency made the following Speech to both Houſes:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

MY Experience of your Attachment to His Majeſty's Perſon, and of your Zeal for the Public Service, affords me the beſt grounded Hopes that nothing will be wanting on your Part to co-operate with His Majeſty's gracious Intentions to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom; and when to this Conſideration I add my Remembrance of your kind Regard to the Eaſe and Honour of my Adminiſtration, I feel the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure in the preſent Opportunity which His Majeſty has given me of meeting you a Fourth Time in Parliament.

The preſent Proſpect of Public Affairs ſeems to afford you the fulleſt Opportunity for Deliberation on ſuch Subjects as immediately relate to your own domeſtic Happineſs; I muſt therefore recommend to your Conſideration whatever tends to promote and ſtrengthen the interior Police of this Kingdom, and ſuch Laws as may be ſalutary and for the Benefit of the lower Orders of the Community, for theſe have ever been found the moſt effectual Means of binding their Affections to their Country, and ſecuring their Allegiance to one common Parent.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

As in Aſſembling you together in the laſt Seſſion it was not His Majeſty's Purpoſe to aſk Supplies, but ſolely to comply with the Wiſhes of His People, it was not thought proper to call upon you, at that Time, for any further Aid: But as in the ordinary Courſe it now becomes neceſſary to provide for the Expences of the enſuing two Years, your laſt Grants being nearly expired, I have no Doubt of your turning your Thoughts to that important Subject, and of your granting ſuch Supplies as ſhall be found neceſſary for the honorable and firm Support of His Majeſty's Government, for the Security of this Kingdom, and for the Maintenance of the Public Credit.

I have ordered the proper Eſtimates and Accounts to be laid before you, from which you will find, not only that the Revenue has fallen conſiderably ſhort of former Years, but that the Deductions made therefrom for Payment of different Grants for Premiums, Bounties, and Public Works, have been ſo very great, that it has not been nearly ſufficient to defray the Charges of His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments, and other neceſſary Expences of Government, and that a large Arrear has been incurred on that Account. If ſuch Grants are judged proper to be continued, either for theſe or other Public Uſes, you will obſerve, that it is impoſſible that the Revenue, as it now ſtands, can anſwer thoſe Services, and alſo the Support of Government: I therefore think it incumbent upon me to recommend this Subject to your moſt ſerious Conſideration.

It is with Concern that I muſt aſk a Sum of Money to diſcharge the Arrears already incurred on His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments; but you will find that they have been unavoidable, for that the ſtricteſt Œconomy has been uſed, not only in the Charges of the late Augmentation, upon which a very large Saving has been made, but in the Reduction of the Staff, which is now diminiſhed to the Number directed by His Majeſty.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Birth of another Prince is ſuch an Addition to His Majeſty's Happineſs and our Security, that it muſt afford us the trueſt Satisfaction.

It is my indiſpenſible Duty to recommend particularly whatever intereſts the Proteſtant Religion: There can be no Proviſion in its Favour, which ſhall tend to carry into Execution the good Effects of that important Law for limiting the Duration of Parliaments, and are, at the ſame Time, conſiſtent with the Principles of Humanity, and the natural Rights of Mankind, which ſhall not have my hearty Concurrence.

The illegal Aſſociations and audacious Outrages committed in different Parts of this Kingdom, particularly in the North, deſerve your moſt ſerious Attention: They are as deſtructive to Commerce, as diſgraceful to Liberty.

The Wiſdom of former Parliaments, and the Affection of my Predeceſſors in this high Station for your Intereſts, have uniformly co-operated in Support of your Charter-Schools and your Linen Manufacture: I am perſuaded our Zeal for theſe National Objects will equal theirs.

His Majeſty has the firmeſt Reliance on your Loyalty and Duty; and is perſuaded that your Proceedings will be no leſs conſiſtent with your own Dignity than with the true Intereſts of your Country. For my Part, I have reſided ſo long amongſt you, that I truſt it will be needleſs for me to make any new Declarations to you of my Attachment and Affection.

Dublin Caſtle, October 10.

The Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame, together with Addreſſes from both Houſes to the Lord Lieutenant, were, this Day, preſented ſented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and of our firm Confidence in your paternal Attention to the Happineſs of your Majeſty's People, and your gracious Diſpoſition to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall endeavour to make ſuch a Uſe of the Opportunity, which the preſent Proſpect of Publick Affairs affords us, as may beſt anſwer your Majeſty's gracious Purpoſes of calling us together; and that we ſhall chearfully concur with his Excellency Lord Viſcount Townſhend our Chief Governor, whom your Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to continue amongſt us, in whatever may promote the great and important Matters recommended at this Time to our Conſideration; and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour ſo to conduct our Proceedings, that they may conſiſt with our own Honour, and the true Intereſt of our Country.

We moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Event of the Birth of another Prince; and do aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always conſider every Addition to your Royal Family, as a further Security to us of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

And we beg Leave to declare our Readineſs chearfully to contribute, as far as poſſible, to whatever may ſtrengthen and ſupport the Religious and Civil Rights of Mankind, and to whatever may give Effect to the important and conſtitutional Law for Limiting the Duration of Parliaments.

As we have an Abhorrence of thoſe audacious Outrages, which of late have appeared in different Parts of this Kingdom, we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not fail ſeriouſly to deliberate upon them, and to concur in every wiſe Proviſion that can be formed to remedy ſo great an Evil.

We humbly acknowledge to your Majeſty the unfeigned Pleaſure we feel in the Opinion you are graciouſly pleaſed to entertain of our Loyalty and dutiful Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family; and do aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ever, by our Conduct, endeavour to merit and preſerve your Majeſty's gracious Favour and Protection.

Wm. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave, with the ſincereſt Affection, to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majeſty for continuing his Excellency the Lord Viſcount Townſhend in the Government of this Kingdom; from whoſe long Experience of our Loyalty and Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, from whoſe approved Integrity, and from whoſe ſincere Wiſhes for the Proſperity of this Country, manifeſted during a Reſidence of four Years amongſt us, we have every Reaſon to expect that the Buſineſs of this Seſſion will be carried on with Candour, Temper, and Unanimity.

Permit us to congratulate your Majeſty upon the further Addition to your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, by the Birth of another Prince; an Event which muſt give the higheſt Pleaſure to a People deeply intereſted in every Thing that can contribute to your Majeſty's Happineſs. We bring with us every Diſpoſition to promote the Honor of the Crown, and the Service of the Publick; and your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall take into our moſt ſerious Conſideration thoſe important Objects recommended to us from the Throne, and chearfully make every Proviſion for the honorable Support of your Majeſty's Government the Security of this Kingdom, and the Maintenance of Publick Credit; conſiſtent with the Ability, and the eſſential Intereſt of this Country.

We have ſeen with extreme Concern the illegal Aſſociations and audacious Outrages committed by the lower Order of People in different Counties in this Kingdom, and particularly in ſome Places of the North; which, if not duly attended to, muſt be productive of the moſt fatal Conſequences, and which we are truly ſenſible are diſgraceful to a Country of Liberty, and ruinous to a Country of Commerce; it is our firm Purpoſe to uſe the moſt effectual Methods to ſtop their Progreſs, and prevent them for the future.

We ſhall give particular Attention to thoſe great National Objects, our Linen Manufacture, and the Proteſtant Charter Schools; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in all our Deliberations, we ſhall ſupport, to the beſt of our Power, the Honor of the Crown, and the true Intereſt of our Country.

E. Sterling,
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Excellency George, Lord Viſcount Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

We are thankful and moſt ſenſible of His Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Welfare, in the Continuance of your Excellency in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom, fully experiencing your Excellency's Attention to the Security and Happineſs of it.

We return your Excellency our Thanks for the Notice you have taken of thoſe illegal and audacious Outrages, that have diſturbed ſo much the Peace and Quiet of the different Parts of this Kingdom, particularly the North, to the Diſgrace of Liberty, and the Detriment of the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom; and we do aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall readily do all in our

Power

Power to co-operate with your Excellency in every wiſe Proviſion that may remedy ſo great an Evil.

We rejoice with your Excellency on the Increaſe of His Majeſty's Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince, fully and daily experiencing the Bleſſings we enjoy under His Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

We beg Leave to thank your Excellency for your Attention in recommending to us the Support of our Charter-Schools, and the Improvement of our Linen Manufacture, as the ſureſt Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and of the Commerce of this Kingdom, to both of which we ſhall have the utmoſt Regard.

The Experience which we have had of your Excellency's Attachment and Affection, during your Reſidence amongſt us, leaves us no Room to doubt of your Endeavours to promote the true Intereſts of this Country.

To which Addreſs his Excellency has been pleaſed to give this Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return you my ſincere Thanks for your kind and moſt obliging Addreſs, and I am very happy in receiving this public Mark of your Attention and Reſpect. Nothing can afford me truer Satisfaction than that which I now feel, upon finding that my Conduct, ſince I have been amongſt you, has been ſuch as meets with your Approbation.

To his Excellency George Lord Viſcount Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our ſincereſt Thanks for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne: We beg Leave to expreſs our moſt entire Satisfaction in being again aſſembled under your juſt and prudent Government, and to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall moſt heartily co-operate with your Excellency in every Thing that may tend to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

We have obſerved with Pleaſure the Reduction of the Staff, in Conſequence of His Majeſty's gracious Declaration, ſignified to us by your Excellency; and we have no Doubt of your Excellency's conſtant Regard to Public Œconomy.

We ſhall give our utmoſt Attention to the important Objects recommended to us by your Excellency, and chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for the Support of His Majeſty's Government, the Maintenance of Public Credit, and the Security and Welfare of this Kingdom, as far as ſhall be conſiſtent with the Ability and the eſſential Intereſt of this Country: We are ſenſible that the great Sums of Money, granted of late Years, for Prœmiums, Bounties, and public Works, are a Subject of the higheſt Importance, and require our moſt ſerious Conſideration.

The illegal Aſſociations entered into, and andacious Outrages committed in different Counties of this Kingdom, and particularly in ſome Places in the North, give us the utmoſt Concern; and nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts, to prevent, for the future, thoſe atrocious Violations of the Public Peace and Tranquillity.

Animated as we are, with the ſtrongeſt Senſe of Loyalty to the beſt of Kings; poſſeſſed with the fulleſt Confidence in your future, from our happy Experience of your paſt Conduct; and fully convinced of your Excellency's affectionate Regards to this Kingdom, by the many Proofs of your Attachment to our Intereſts, during your Reſidence amongſt us; we ſhall not fail to contribute every Thing in our Power to make your Adminiſtration as eaſy and honorable to your Excellency, as we are aſſured it will prove happy and advantageous to the Publick.

E. Sterling,
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Return the Houſe of Commons my moſt ſincere Thanks for this very kind and affectionate Addreſs, which gives me the greater Satisfaction, as it follows your Experience of my Conduct during a Reſidence of almoſt four Years in this Kingdom. —— Nothing ſhall be wanting, on my Part, to merit the Continuance of your Approbation and Confidence; and it will be a moſt pleaſing Part of my Duty, in this high Station, moſt faithfully to repreſent to His Majeſty the unſhaken Loyalty and Affection of the Commons of Ireland.

Gibraltar, September 16. On Saturday the 7th Inſtant about Noon, the Venus Frigate, having His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter on board, and the Alarm, appeared in the Offing: As ſoon as the Admiral could plainly diſcover the Standard at the Main Top Maſt Head, he ſaluted with Twenty-one Guns. The Frigates came to Anchor about Two o'Clock, when the Garriſon ſaluted with One and Twenty Guns from the Saluting Battery. Lieutenant Colonel Phillips was immediately ſent off to congratulate his Royal Highneſs, and receive Orders about his Royal Highneſs's Landing. When his Royal Highneſs went into the Boat, the Standard at the Main Top Maſt Head was ſtruck, and hoiſted in the Boat, on which all the Men of War ſaluted with Twenty-one Guns each. His Royal Highneſs landed about Six, and was received by the Governor, Lieutenant-General Cornwallis, at the Water-Port. The Flag of the Garriſon was lowered, the Standord hoiſted, and a Salute from all the Guns on the Line-Wall from the Grand Battery to the South Port. His Royal Highneſs was conducted through the Main Street to the Convent, the Garriſon being under Arms, drawn up in two Ranks, from Water-Port to the Convent, where there was a Captain's Guard of Grenadiers with Colours. When the Troops were diſmiſſed, the Field Officers were introduced to his Royal Highneſs; and about Nine o'Clock the next Morning all the Officers of the Garriſon had the ſame Honour. The following Days his Royal Highneſs employed in viewing the Troops, and in viſiting every Part of this Garriſon with the greateſt Minuteneſs and Attention. On the 13th in the Morning, his Royal Highneſs rode towards the Spaniſh Lines, attended by all the Field Officers; at the Miquelet Huts he was met by Mr. Mendoza, the Spaniſh General, and ſeveral Spaniſh Officers; and at the Ring a Body, of about 120 Spaniſh Horſe, being Detachments from Four different Regiments, were drawn up to eſcort him. His Royal Highneſs, after viſiting the Lines, alighted at the Guard-Room near the Barrier. The Spaniſh General conducted his Royal Highneſs back to our Barrier at Bayſide, where they parted. His Royal Highneſs came within the Barrier, and continued on the Cauſeway until the Spaniſh General was out of Sight. About Eleven o'Clock his Royal Highneſs went to the Water-Port, where General Cornwallis waited to receive him. His Royal Highneſs immediately embarked, the Garriſon and Men of War paying him the ſame Compliments pliments as when he landed, except that the Troops were not under Arms. On his Royal Highneſs's going on board, the Frigates got immediately under Way.

Port Mahon, Sept. 28. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, in the Venus Frigate, accompanied by the Alarm, arrived here on Saturday Morning the 21ſt Inſtant. During his Royal Highneſs's Stay in this Iſland, he viſited the Fort at St. Philip's, and viewed the Troops. His Royal Highneſs reimbarked on the 23d, and ſailed for Genoa with a fair Wind.

Genoa, Sept. 30. On the 27th in the Morning his Britannic Majeſty's Ships Venus and Alarm arrived here, the former having on Board his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter. Soon after the Venus had dropped Anchor, the Maſter of the Ceremonies and the Captain of the Port were ſent on board, with a Compliment from the Republic, to beg his Royal Highneſs would receive a Deputation of ſix Noblemen, (who had been previouſly named for that Purpoſe) and likewiſe accept a Lodging which the Republic had prepared for his Reception, as alſo the uſual Preſent of Refreſhments; but his Royal Highneſs choſe to decline them, at the ſame Time expreſſing his perfect Senſibility of the Civilities intended to be ſhewn to him. His Royal Highneſs has ſince received Viſits from ſome of the Nobility, but declines any Public Attentions.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Oct. 19, 1771.

This is to give Notice, that there will be no Drawing Room at St. James's on Thurſday next; but that there will be a Drawing Room there the next Day, viz. on Friday, the 25th Inſtant, being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne.

Navy-Office, October 19, 1771.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that all Bills regiſtered on the Courſe of the Navy for the Months of November and December 1770, and January and February 1771, are ordered to be paid in Money; that ſuch Perſons as are poſſeſſed thereof may bring them to this Office, to be aſſigned on the Treaſurer of the Navy for Payment.

Navy-Office, October 18, 1771.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1ſt of January, to the 30th of June, 1771, according to His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment in that Behalf; Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſaid Payment will begin to be made at the Office of the Treaſurer of the Navy in Broad-Street, on Monday and Tueſday the 5th and 6th of next Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, viz. To Captains and their Attorneys, and other Officers appearing themſelves, on the Monday; and to Attorneys of Lieutenants, Maſters and Surgeons, on the Tueſday, (after which the Liſts will be recalled once a Month) that all Perſons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any Publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay; but alſo produce Certificates that they have ſubſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His preſent Majeſty; and in Caſe any of the ſaid Sea Officers ſhall not be able to attend themſelves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpoſe, that the ſaid Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Perſons they are employed by.
